HARRY CARMAN

CANBERRA SINGER-SONGWRITER • ORIGINALS •
COVERS • LIVE

Canberra singer-songwriter Harry Carman writes honest songs about real life, and plays them live like he means it, alongside a deep catalogue of crowd favourites.

Inspired by storytellers like Noah Kahan and Zach Bryan, Harry released his debut EP Paths in 2017 and A State Of Sedation in 2018 with producer Taka Perry. After stepping back for a few years, a collaboration with producer Josh Richens brought him back to the studio for Buzz(2023) and It's All Good(2025).

On stage he moves easily between originals and the songs everyone knows, which is why he's at home on a festival main stage, in a packed venue or at a wedding.
